14th Sunday Ordinary Time "C"

Luke 10:1-20

"The harvest is plenty, laborers are few!"

- How can I share Jesus' Gospel truths with others?
- How can I confront the demons in my life, my family, my community?
- Am I an instrument of peace?

BISHOP CONLON TO VISIT & CELEBRATE MASS

During the month of July, while staying in Ashkum, Bishop Conlon will be visiting the Churches in our Ford/Iroquois deanery and celebrating Mass at them. He is scheduled to be at St. Edmund's on July 8th & 22nd and the weekend of the 20th/21st.

Please join us and welcome Bishop Conlon to our community!

PLEASE EXCUSE OUR MESS!!

With the ongoing work here at St. Edmund's, it may look like the cleaning at the Church is not getting done but, rest assured, it is. It is just hard right now for our cleaning lady to keep up with the mess made by the work and the workers, so....please excuse our mess!

On that same note, thanks to the following parishioners who came last Tuesday night and readied the Church basement for the two upcoming Pancake Breakfasts that will be held here: Dick Arie, Kevin Bohlmann, Sue Butler, Mary Claire, Mary Jane LaFond, Barb Mayotte, Gerald Noonan, Jeanette Reifel, Jo Ann White, and Scott Yarneau. Your help was very much appreciated!
