Preparing to hear next Sunday's Gospel:

17th Sunday Ordinary Time "C"

Luke 11:1-13

"Lord, teach us to pray!"

- Do I faithfully and regularly make time in my busy life for prayer?
- Am I confident that God answers my prayers: sometimes with a "yes," sometimes with a "no?"
- While my prayers of petition are important, do I also pray in thanksgiving, praise and contrition?

Prayer: Jesus, you teach us how we should pray. Help me come before your Father and my Father in sincere, selfless and genuine prayer. Lovingly, let your Holy Spirit inspire all my prayers. Amen!

The Saints Speak to Us . . .

One should not wish to become a saint in just a few days but slowly, carefully step-by-step.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has come up with 10 points for fruitful Scripture reading. Below is # 8:

You do not read alone. By reading and reflecting on Sacred Scripture, Catholics join those faithful men and women who have taken God's Word to heart and put it into practice in their lives. We read the Bible within the tradition of the Church to benefit from the holiness and wisdom of all the faithful.

CONDOLENCES TO Barbara Quigley, whose sister, Wendy Beadle, was called home to our Lord.

May God's peace be with her.
