Preparing to hear next Sunday's Gospel:

Solemnity of Pentecost

Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

"And they were filled with the Holy Spirit!"

- How do I live out the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit in my life...
The gift of Wisdom, of Understanding, of Counsel, of Fortitude, of Knowledge, of Piety and of Fear of the Lord?

Come Creator Spirit,
 To dwell within our days,
 Inspire our hearts with living flame
 And teach our tongues to praise.
 We'll walk with the Apostles,
 We'll follow in their ways,
 Your light will shine within our hearts
 Forevermore to blaze! Amen!

"The wearin' of the red!"

We're all aware of the St. Patrick's Day tradition of wearing green. On the "High Holy Days" of the football season there are days when ya' gotta wear blue & orange for "da Bears." There are even a few brave folk who have been caught wearing green & gold for that team somewhere up north...and we know who you are...

We also know that there is a venerable tradition of wearing red on the Solemnity of Pentecost. We remember that the Holy Spirit came upon the disciples in the Upper Room in tongues of flame. Here at St. Edmund and at St. Joseph, we've enjoyed this custom of wearing red on Pentecost. Next Sunday is Pentecost so...perhaps wear red...I know I will!
