Exodus 33:14

Preparing to hear next Sunday's Gospel:
23rd Sunday Ordinary Time "C"
Luke 14:25-33
"Whoever does not carry his cross cannot be my disciple!!"

- What is in my life that might hinder me from being a true disciple of Jesus?
- Do I realize the challenge of following Jesus?
- Are my possessions more important to me than my discipleship?

Prayer: Heavenly Father, your Son, Jesus, calls me to take up my cross and follow him. Help me to be aware of whatever interferes in responding to his invitation to discipleship. Amen!

FORD-IROQUOIS CCW DEANERY LAP ROBE PROJECT

Ford-Iroquois CCW Deanery Members...we need lap robes! Lap robes will be given to Iroquois Memorial Hospice so they may be distributed to their patients during the Thanksgiving/Christmas seasons. We need at least 25.

Criteria: The material should be washable and durable. They may be crocheted. Fleece works well. The edges may be sewn or tied. Colorful, cheerful prints are wonderful. For the size, they can be anywhere from 48 -51 inches wide and 56-59 inches long.

For more information, contact Pam Fink at 815-268-4446 or email her at finknfink@sbcglobal.net. Our goal is to deliver our lap robes to IMH Hospice on Monday, November 11. When your CCW has completed the project, contact Pam for a pick-up date.

If completed early, lap robes can be brought to our Fall Gathering on September 28th at St. Edmund's.
