“The two words that will change your life are “thank you.” Like a candle that can light a thousand more without shortening its own life, appreciation is a gift that, when given, can set the whole world aglow. Do your part in passing it along.”

Preparing to hear next Sunday's Gospel:

3rd Sunday of Easter C

John 21:1—19

"Feed my lambs, Feed my sheep!"

The apostles were fishing when they encountered Jesus; what have I been doing when I have "bumped" into Jesus?

Peter dressed before he jumped into the water to be with Jesus; what do I need to do to prepare to encounter him in my life?

Jesus called Peter to feed his lambs and to tend his sheep; what can I do to care for fellow disciples?

Prayer: Risen Lord Jesus, you reached out to your disciples after your Resurrection, you welcomed them and you fed them. During this season of Easter Joy, help me to share a meal with you at Mass and then to go out and care for my brothers and sisters. Amen!

We wish to extend our heartfelt congratulations to St. Edmund's First Communicants and their families on this very special day of meeting Jesus at today's 11:00 a.m. Mass:

Helena Cluver

Reed Tegtmeier

Colton McTaggart

Parker Williamson

A special "thank you" to Kendra Martin, with the help of Jackie Bell, for preparing these children for their First Communion and to Gary Cahoe for providing the music.

2022 CMAA REPORT
